LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Local town officials are elected for two-year terms, in every odd numbered year, on the first Tuesday in April, and take office on the third Tuesday in April.

In villages, the village president and six trustees (two in the Village of Aniwa and four in the Village of Eland) are elected to the village board, three in odd numbered years and three in even numbered years.

By statute, city officials are elected on the first Tuesday in April and take office on the third Tuesday in April, except the administrative officials who take office on May 1.

By statute 60.75, Lake Sanitary and Sanitary District commissioners are elected on the first Tuesday in April and take office on the third Tuesday in April. Term lengths are 6 years.

Shawano County has 25 towns, 11 villages, 2 cities, 13 school districts, and 3 sanitary districts.

JUDICIAL COURT COMMISSIONER

Phone: 715-526-9347

Eric Hendrickson Commissioner

In a variety of family court proceedings (these disputes may be a result of divorcing parents, paternity disputes or divorced parents who are seeking changes in legal custody or physical placement after the divorce has been granted), the Court Commissioner conducts temporary hearings, which set the rules the parties must follow while their case is pending.

The temporary order can cover a number of issues, such as child custody, child placement, child support, spousal maintenance (alimony), payment on debts, and temporary use of property (e.g. residence, vehicles). This order remains in effect until such time a final hearing can be conducted by one of the Circuit Court Judges in the proceeding.

Also, as the Director of Family Court Counseling Services, this office facilitates the furnishing of court-ordered mediation services to parents who are disputing legal custody and/or physical placement of their children in court. The Court Commissioner also furnishes information to people regarding the procedural steps to be taken for changing or enforcing family court orders.

STATE-OWNED RECREATION TRAILS

MOUNTAIN-BAY STATE TRAIL

The Mountain-Bay State Trail travels for 83 miles between the two geologic features it is named for: Rib Mountain and Green Bay. There is a short gap in the trail in the city of Shawano near the Wolf River, where local roads are used to connect the trail.

The 58-mile segment of the trail that runs through Shawano County connects the Brown County and Marathon County portions of the trail. The trail roughly parallels State Highway 29; parking is available along the trail in the communities of Eland, Bowler, Shawano, and Bonduel. Restrooms and support facilities are located at local parks within all the villages.

Each bicyclist or horseback rider age 16 or older needs a Wisconsin state trail pass while using the trail.

WIOUWASH STATE TRAIL

The Wiouwash State Trail is named for Winnebago, Outagamie, Waupaca and Shawano counties. This trail, built on a former rail corridor, is maintained and operated by the four counties the trail traverses. Two sections of the trail are complete and are separated by a gap of about 30 miles. In Shawano County, the northern segment of the trail travels 19 miles between Birnamwood and Split Rock. The southern segment of the trail is open for 22 miles from Hortonville to Oshkosh.

Parking is available in the communities of Birnamwood, Eland, Wittenberg and Tigerton. State Highway 45 runs through or parallel to these four communities in Shawano County. In Eland, the Wiouwash State Trail connects with the Mountain-Bay State Trail.

A state trail pass is not required for the Wiouwash State Trail.

STEPS TO SAFE BURNING

Get a permit: Obtain a free permit online instantly with an email address or call the hotline 1-888-WIS-BURN (947-2876) from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily to have a burning permit mailed to you.

Check before burning: After 11 a.m. on the day you wish to burn, check the daily burning restrictions and select the county where you plan to burn. Fire conditions change quickly, so it's important to check each day you burn to find out if burning is allowed, burning hours and any size limitations.

Follow the rules: Follow the daily burning restrictions and fire safety recommendations listed on the permit. Make sure to have all the necessary tools to keep your fire contained. Lastly, make sure your fire is completely out before leaving.
